Dewan of Mysore.

Bangalore, Dated 22nd July 1902.

Most Respectfully Sheweth,

That the petitioner's husband - a popular official of the Mysore State - and his eldest son of 17 years of age died suddenly of plague 2 months ago, leaving the petitioner and 3 daughters and an infant son entirely unprovided for.

2. That the petitioner was in the Plague Camp till recently and was discharged therefrom only a week ago, after her eldest daughter recovered from Plague.

3. That the petitioner and her children are now experiencing very great difficulty to maintain themselves, as they were entirely dependent on the slender resources of the deceased and as there is at present no male member to take care of them.

4. That the petitioner's husband has left a small unfinished house which he has undertaken to build out of the small advance given him by the benevolent Government of Mysore and out of the funds collected by him from his charitably disposed friends.

5. That the petitioner begs respectfully to bring to the notice of Government that during the lifetime of her husband he was granted a loan of 12 months' pay, namely Rs.300 for the purpose of erecting a house in Baswangudi Extension and that out of this sum, he has paid to Government one half, leaving the other half Rs.150 plus Rs.20 towards site value.

6. That the petitioner has a small family debt of Rs.50 and begs to state that for lack of funds she was not able to perform perform as yet the 16th day ceremony of her late lamented husband.

7. That the petitioner humbly prays that the Government,-- may, under the circumstances above represented be graciously -- pleased to take into consideration her pitiful case and forego the balance still due to Government by her late husband towards the house building advance and site value, namely, Rs.150+19 an odd respectively as a special case, on the ground that the deceased has left no other male member who could be of some support to the distressed family left behind, otherwise the necessary action may be taken by the Deputy Commissioner to put up to --- auction the house bequeathed to the petitioner and recover the amount found due, thereby depriving her of a property that would fetch a few rupees monthly for her support.

For which act of benevolence, your petitioner as in duty bound will ever pray.
